

Expectations:

UT students discuss expectations of romantic relationships including expectations influenced by movies, expectations that are too high and do not get met, expectations of always being there for each other, expectations of understanding and kindness, and expectations of being cared for.