Please answer the following questions:

1. Why are you applying to be in the Peer Theatre class? What do you hope to achieve for yourself and others?
2. How did you hear about the class?
3. We will be working with issues of sexual and relationship violence. What is your reaction to working with these issues?

4. Peer educators are leaders on campus. How do you see yourself as a leader within the VAV program? How comfortable are you being a leader in a peer group?
5. Give an example of a significant challenge that you have faced and how you overcame it.
6. Give an example of an achievement you are proud of and what it means to you.
7. Being a peer educator can be demanding on your time. What other extracurricular and work responsibilities will you have and how will you manage these time commitments?
8. The issues brought up in class can sometimes get emotional. Do you have a support system that you can turn to? What would you do for self-care if you needed to get help with emotionally challenging issues that came up in class?
9. Can you make a one year commitment to be involved with this work and do you plan to take the Spring 2009 SW 360 class?
10. If you were selected to come for a face-to-face interview, please let us know dates/days/times that would work for you.
