

Stand Up, Speak Out...

and get
academic credit
for making a difference!

Voices Against Violence Presents

Theatre for Dialogue:

Exploring Interpersonal Violence

SW 360, meets every Wednesday 2 – 5:00 pm

Now recruiting men and women

- No previous acting experience necessary
- Learn how to educate your peers about violence prevention and intervention.
- Learn interactive theatre techniques to facilitate discussions around issues of interpersonal violence.

If you are ready to make a ONE-YEAR COMMITMENT (Fall '08 – Spring '09) to the Voices Against Violence Peer Theatre program, please contact Lynn Hoare at lynnhoare@mail.utexas.edu, or call 475-6989.

Be part of an innovative, nationally recognized program!

This class is made possible by Voices Against Violence, a program of the Counseling and Mental Health Center and the UT School of Social Work.