

Friend Influence:

UT students discuss the influence friends have on our romantic relationships, including feedback, encouragement, the need to balance time with friends and partners, and taking a friends opinions into consideration.