

Stand up, Speak out:

Using Theatre To Change Community

Join us for an evening of pizza and performance!

Tuesday, March 9th

6:30-9:00pm

Lab Theatre

Two models of theatre for social change by:

Changing Lives Youth Theatre Ensemble

VOICES AGAINST VIOLENCE

UT Counseling & Mental Health Center

"Perhaps Tomorrow..."

an original play by local teens about rumors, friendship, and finding the courage to make a difference.

Changing Lives is a collaboration between SafePlace and Theatre Action Project.

The program combines youth leadership development with peer theatre to engage youth in raising awareness about teen dating violence and other relationship issues.

"Messaging or Manipulation? Thoughtful or Threatening?"

an interactive scenario about the use and abuse of digital information in a dating relationship.

Voices Against Violence is a program of the University of Texas Counseling and Mental Health Center, and offers education and training on the issues of relationship violence, sexual violence and stalking.

VAV Theatre for Dialogue offers interactive performances that engage audiences in examining the complex issues of interpersonal violence.
