

Interest:

UT students discuss how to know if a relationship is romantic, including becoming more comfortable around each other, questions becoming more personal, friends asking about the relationship, meeting the other person's family, verbally establishing a relationship, having a history together, and doing things together in public.