

Relationship NOT Working:

UT students discuss how to know if a relationship is not working including, communication difficulties, instincts, needs and desires not being in sync with the other person, no longer being satisfied, the relationship being less rewarding, and differences in values affecting your relationship negatively.