

Challenges:

UT students discuss common challenges of being in a romantic relationship, including getting distracted from studies or friends, trying to find time for a relationship, dealing with emotional pressure, being too invested in your relationship, and dealing with unmet expectations.